WHO IS DAWN?

Clients & Audiences Love Dawn's Sessions!

"This was an excellent course! Very interactive and engaging. Topics were interesting and thought-provoking. Lively, interesting, and engaging presenter who kept my attention. I didn't want to miss anything."

Business Project Leaders, Campbell Soup Company

"Thank you for a fab few days, a brilliant course...totally affirmed my thoughts on the PM role itself and has re-energized me for my future career in Cisco, which is fantastic!"

Cisco Systems Participant, London, UK

"A unique way of explaining project management that doesn't feel like I'm at the dentist!"

Raoul Davis, CEO, Ascendant Group Branding, Author, Speaker

"This was the most interactive, most engaging meeting we've ever had."

Dan Oenefer, Project Management Institute Chapter Leader

Dawn Mahan, PMP holds an A.S. in Actuarial Science and a B.S. in Mathematics with a minor in Business. She spent the first half of her life searching for her calling, first in creative writing, then as an actuary, next in biostatistics, then in an IT consulting firm where she was encouraged to spread her wings working as a software developer, database administrator, creator of technical training, their first solution architect, business analyst and accidental project manager. She further developed her expertise as a project consultant, designed and led a Fortune 500 PMO, ran a sensitive transformation project in the Fortune 50, became a transformation expert and started her first company in 2009.

"Dawn is a natural leader and teacher, an uplifter of spirits, an instigator of change, a catalyst for goodness and doing the right thing."

Anümani Santos, MBA, Author, Speaker, Coach, Shaman
